

Environmental impact assessment

In a process of implementing projects that are successful in long-term a crucial stage is addressing environmental issues in accordance with legislative requirements, therefore assessment elaborated of high quality is of great importance.

VentEko provides environmental impact assessment for strategic policy plans, public and private projects and programs of any complexity according to legal requirements.

We offer:

- Initial environmental impact assessment submission preparation;
- Public hearing, consultation organization;
- Onsite survey, investigation organization and preparation;
- Environmental impact assessment report preparation;
- Provision of consultations and advises.