

Geotechnical investigation

VentEko provides geotechnical investigation for residential, industrial buildings and communication infrastructure facilities.

We offer:

- Preparation of feasibility study for geotechnical survey
- Survey of building foundations
- Geotechnical drilling and sampling
- Static and dynamic probing
- Soil and groundwater condition and quality determination
- Preparation of assessments, recommendations and provision of consultations